LEGISLATION IN CONGRESS FOR HAWAII

(By Wireless to THE TRIBUNE.)

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS OF POSTAL FUNDS DISAPPEAR

Honolulu, Feb. 6.—A big shortage has been found at the Koloa post office by a crude but the same old method. Twenty-seven thousand dollars disappear. Postmaster Rego and Assistant Spaulding assert innocence.

[Manuel A. Rego, the postmaster at Koloa, Kauai, is also a general merchant and engaged in the livery stable business and cane planting. The assistant postmaster John P. Spaulding is the bookkeeper for Rego and did the actual work of the post office.]

Southern California Gets Heavy Rain.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 4.—The greatest rainfall Southern California has had in years is now in progress.

Sugar Factories Closed.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Feb. 4.—Forty-two sugar factories in Poland have been closed on account of the strike at Sosnowitz, which involves 30,000 workmen. Gorki and seven others, authors of the strike, are to be tried on political charges.

Threatened Revolution Subsiding.

Warsaw, Russia, Feb. 3.—Some of the employees of a lace factory at Lodz, where 25,000 men were striking, attempted to return to work today and were prevented by the military patrol. The troops exchanged many shots with the strikers and six were killed and forty-eight were wounded. The coal miners are striking and over 300 men have been killed in recent disturbances.

Arrested for Senatorial Bribing.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 2.—Joseph Jordan, the alleged go-between in the Senatorial bribery case, has been arrested.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 2.—Senator Mitchell has been reindicted in connection with land frauds.

Pleasure Party Meets With Accident.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Feb. 2.—A trap collided here with a sleigh containing a pleasure party. Ten women were killed and three injured.

Judge Swayne Refutes Charges.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—United States Judge Swayne has replied to the charges against him, declaring his acts are justifiable and unimpeachable.

Tried to Poison Manager.

Nawiliwili, Kauai, Feb. 1.—Two Japanese employees, named Nomi Mizo and Yonimoto, have been arrested by Sheriff Coney for attempting to poison Manager B. D. Baldwin and family at Makaweli plantation. The preliminary hearing was held today before District Judge Hoffgaard at Waimea.

Rioting Continues in Poland.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Feb. 2.—Quiet has been restored in most of the industrial centers of the empire. Fifty-three rioters were killed and 150 wounded at Riga. Gorky, the novelist, arrested for his revolutionary utterances, has been released.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Feb. 3.—Gorky, the revolutionary novelist, has not been released from prison as was previously announced.

Wilder For Supreme Bench.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—The President has nominated Arthur A. Wilder to the position of Associate Justice of Hawaii, to succeed F. M. Hatch, resigned.

[The appointment was first tendered to United States District Judge Sanford B. Dole, who is now on Hawaii, but he declined by a wireless message, preferring not to change. Henry E. Cooper was favorably mentioned in connection with the vacancy caused by Judge Hatch's resignation, but the Governor finally recommended Arthur A. Wilder. Mr. Wilder is not yet thirty-two years of age. Since 1898, when he completed a post-graduate course at Yale law school, he has been a member of the law firm of Robertson & Wilder, Honolulu. He was born on Oahu and is unmarried.]

Mrs. D. Huntington and daughter leave by the Kinau to visit Dr. and Mrs. Henry Hayes.

Geo. Ross and wife, of Hikalau, will return to Hilo by the S. S. Enterprise when it returns from Honolulu.

Andrews Fined for Contempt.

One of the last official acts of Sheriff L. A. Andrews before his retirement from office was to have a flurry with the judicial branch of government, and as a result he is under the necessity of having to pay a fine of $50 for contempt of court, which was imposed by Judge Parsons on Wednesday last.

The contempt proceedings arose out of Sheriff Andrews' failure to pay over to the Clerk of the Court as directed the sum of $160.54 being fines and costs collected from Kuakoa, Kaiwi and Peter Kanakaole, who were convicted on May 7th last in the District Court of Puna for assaulting a police officer at Kalapana.

From the judgment of the District Magistrate, the three defendants appealed to the Circuit sitting at chambers. In the meantime the grand jury returned three indictments against the three men, which indictments were nolle prosequed by the Deputy Attorney General. Judge Little dismissed the appeal on the ground that there could be no appeal to the Circuit Judge at Chambers. On appeal to the Supreme Court the same view was held, the appeal being dismissed and the case remanded to the Circuit Court, directing such further action as may be necessary.

Thereupon, Judge Parsons issued an order remanding the three defendants in the custody of the sheriff to execute the judgment of the District Magistrate. Rather than go to jail, the defendants paid a fine of $50 each, together with costs, which altogether amounted to $160.54. This sum was turned over to the Sheriff's department and was about to be forwarded to the Territorial Treasurer when Attorney C. S. Smith, representing the three defendants, moved that the order of the Court remanding the three defendants into the custody of the Sheriff be set aside on the ground that the proceedings were ex parte, that the order was improperly made and without jurisdiction, and a denial of the right of trial by jury.

At the same time Attorney Smith asked that the money in the hands of Sheriff Andrews be paid over to the Clerk of the Court pending a decision of the Court on the motion to set aside. Judge Parsons issued such an order, directing the Sheriff to pay over to the Clerk the money in his hands by 3 o'clock Wednesday.

When the appointed hour arrived, instead of turning the $160.54 over to Clerk Gurney, Sheriff Andrews proceeded to make an extended argument in his own behalf, and questioned the Court's authority to order over the cash without having received instructions from the Attorney General at Honolulu. Judge Parsons promptly found Andrews guilty of contempt and imposed a fine of $50. Andrews has filed a reply, disclaiming any purpose of keeping the money, setting up as an excuse the confusion around his office resulting from his having been "summarily and without warning dismissed" from his position as Sheriff; that he was unable to procure counsel to defend him in the contempt proceedings, and had no intention of holding the Court's orders in contempt. The case comes up this morning at 10 o'clock for final hearing.
